

Gout results from increased levels of uric acid crystals in the blood causing inflammation in joints and their surrounding tendons.

Reflexology can decrease the pain associated with inflammation, relax the overstimulated adrenal glands, help to flush the body of excess uric acid crystals and provide relaxation.

Reflexology is most beneficial at the onset of an episode. Do not wait until your pain becomes intolerable.

